Respondent

The court made the following

:: ORDER ::

The petitioner is an authorisee of Fair Price Shop Dealer, Thipparajupalli (V), Pendlimarri (M), Kadapa District. His authorization was suspended by the 1st respondent's proceedings dated 7.6.2005 on the ground of involvement in certain irregularities specified in the order and pending enquiry. As against the suspension the petitioner preferred an appeal to the Joint Collector concerned, which is stated to be pending. Along with the appeal he filed an application for interim direction. However, he has filed this writ petition challenging the order of suspension.

In the above chronology of events the petitioner cannot be permitted to challenge, in this writ petition, the order of suspension against which he has already preferred an appeal. The writ petition is misconceived and is accordingly dismissed.

The Joint Collector may consider and dispose of the appeal or the application for interim direction filed by the petitioner.

No order as to costs.
